

Committee on Content Regulation in Government Advertising

July 21, 2020

Relevance for UPSC exam

The Supreme Court-mandated Committee on Content Regulation in Government Advertising (CCRGA) issued a notice to the Delhi government seeking clarifications on an advertisement it placed in Mumbai editions of prominent newspapers.

Context of the Issue

The Committee had taken suo-moto cognizance of the questions that had been raised on the necessity of Delhi Government to issue advertisements in Mumbai newspapers and had pointed that the purpose of the ad was only for political messaging.

Under the Supreme Court guidelines, the content of government advertisements should be relevant to the governments' constitutional and legal obligations as well as the citizens' rights and entitlements.

Committee on Content Regulation in Government Advertising

As per the directions of the Supreme Court, the Government of India in 2016 had set up a 3 member body consisting of 'persons with unimpeachable neutrality and impartiality and who have excelled in their respective fields' to look into content regulation of Government funded advertisements in all media platforms.

The Committee is empowered to address complaints from the general public on the violation of the Supreme Court guidelines and make suitable recommendations. The Committee can also take suo-moto cognizance of any violation/ deviation of the Supreme Court guidelines and recommend corrective actions.

Presently the CCRGA is chaired by Shri Om Prakash Rawat, former Chief Election Commissioner of India and the Members are Shri Ramesh Narayan of Asian Federation of Advertising Associations and Past President, IAA and Dr. Ashok Kumar Tandon, Member, Prasar Bharati Board.
