

Cyclone Sarai

July 28, 2020

Fiji witnessed devastating effects of tropical Cyclone Sarai

Key highlights

- With wind gusts strengthening to 150 kilometres per hour during the day, Sarai destroyed houses and crops, brought down trees, cut power and caused considerable flooding in low-lying areas.
- Sarai was a category two tropical cyclone

Categories of Cyclones and their effects

