

“Green Triangle” named after Mahatma Gandhi

March 22, 2022

In news– As part of the ‘Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav’ to commemorate India’s 75th year of independence, a “Green Triangle” named after Mahatma Gandhi was inaugurated in Madagascar’s capital Antananarivo recently.

Key updates–

- It was jointly inaugurated by the Mayor of Antananarivo Naina Andriantsitohaina and India’s Ambassador to Madagascar Abhay Kumar.
- The word green in the plaque signifies the commitment to sustainable development and saving the environment.
- Earlier, the Embassy of India in Antananarivo had organized a special ceremony to unveil the plaque of ‘Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam’ in the Embassy premises as part of the ‘Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav’ celebrations.