

Hindi Diwas

September 16, 2021

In news– National Hindi Day is celebrated across the country on 14 September.

About Hindi Diwas-

- Aim: To raise awareness about the language and also commemorate the event when it was adopted as one of the official languages of India.
- In 1949 the Constituent Assembly of India had recognised and adopted Hindi, an Indo-Aryan language written in the Devanagari script as the official language of the country.
- It is one of the 22 scheduled languages of the Republic of India.
- It is also on this day that the President of the country felicitates people for their contribution to Hindi language and literature.
- From the year 1953, for the promotion of Hindi, every year on 14th September, Hindi Diwas started to be celebrated (after the recommendation of the Rashtrabhasha Prachar Samiti).
- According to the 2011 census, in India, there are roughly about 43.6 percent speakers, who identify Hindi as their mother tongue.
- The language has other variants as well, like Awadhi, Braj and Khadi Boli.
- However, India has two official languages: English and Hindi.
- Although 10 January is celebrated as World Hindi Diwas, in this way Hindi Day is celebrated twice in India.
- Hindi Pakhwada-Hindi Divas is celebrated for a whole week, which is known as Hindi Pakhwada
