

India adds three new sites to UNESCO Tentative List

December 22, 2022

In news— The Archaeological Survey of India has said that three new cultural sites in India, including the iconic Sun Temple at Modhera, the historic Vadnagar town in Gujarat and the rock-cut relief sculptures of Unakoti in Tripura, have been added to the tentative list of Unesco world heritage sites.

More information on the three sites-

Sun Temple at Modhera-

- Modhera Sun Temple is located at Modhera village of Mehsana district, Gujarat, India.
- Modhera finds a mention in the ancient scriptures like Skanda Purana and Brahma Purana.
- The old texts also refer to Modhera and its surrounding areas as Dharmaranya or the forest of righteousness.
- It is situated on the bank of the river Pushpavati.
- It was built after 1026-27 CE during the reign of Bhima I of the Chalukya dynasty.
- The place was later known as Sita ni Chauri and Ramkund locally.
- No worship is offered now and the temple is the Monument of National Importance and is maintained by the Archeological Survey of India.
- The temple is built on 23.6° latitude (approximately near the Tropic of Cancer).
- Earlier, during 1024–1025, Mahmud of Ghazni had invaded Bhima's kingdom, and a force of around 20,000 soldiers had unsuccessfully tried to check his advance at Modhera.
- Historian A. K. Majumdar theorizes that the Sun Temple might have been built to commemorate this defense.
- On a block in western wall of cella, there is an inscription “Vikram Samvat 1083” upside down carelessly incised in Devnagari script which corresponds to 1026-1027 CE.

Vadnagar town in Gujarat-

- Vadnagar municipality is a multi-layered historic town, whose history stretches back to nearly 8th Century BCE.
- Its ancient name was Anartapura, and was also known as Anandapura. It was a Buddhist location visited by Xuanzang in 640 C.E.
- The epic tale Mahabharata mentions the Anarta Kingdom in the northern part of present-day Gujarat. The oldest Puranic legend about Gujarat is about a king named Anartha.
- The town is mentioned in the Tirtha Mahatmya section of Nagara Khanda of Skanda Purana by the name of Chamatkarapura.
- The Junagadh rock inscription (dating from 150 C.E.) of Western Kshatrapa King Rudradaman I mentions a region called “Anartha” (meaningless) in northern present-day Gujarat.
- Vadnagar is also the birthplace of the current Prime Minister of India Narendra Modi.

Unakoti in Tripura-

- Dating back to the 7th-9th centuries, Unakoti is a ‘Shaiva’ (Saivite) pilgrimage site with marvellous rock carvings, murals with their primitive beauty and waterfalls.
- Literally, Unakoti means ‘one less one crore’ in Hindi and Bengali and it is believed that these many rock carvings (ninety-nine lakh ninety-nine thousand nine hundred and ninety-nine) are present here.
- In the local Kokborok language, it is called Subrai Khung and is the central tourist spot of the Unakoti District in the Kailashahar Subdivision of Tripura.

Note:

- With this, India now has 52 sites on the Unesco tentative list that capture the diverse cultural and natural wealth of India. In 2021 India had moved a proposal to add six sites to the list.
- These included the Satpura Tiger Reserve, iconic riverfront of the historic city of Varanasi, Megalithic site of Hire Benkal, Maratha Military Architecture in Maharashtra, Bhedaghat-Lametaghat in Narmada Valley-Jabalpur, and temples of Kanchipuram.
- A Tentative List is an inventory of those properties which each State Party intends to consider for nomination.
