

National Digital Library of India

June 23, 2019

National Digital Library of India (NDLI) is a project of the Ministry of Human Resource Development under the aegis of National Mission on Education through Information and Communication Technology (NMEICT).

The objective of NDL is to make digital educational resources available to all citizens of the country to empower, inspire and encourage learning. National Digital Library of India is developed by IIT Kharagpur.

Salient features

- Educational materials are available for users ranging from primary to post-graduate levels.
- NDL has been designed to benefit all kinds of users like students (of all levels), teachers, researchers, librarians, library users, professionals, differently abled users and all other lifelong learners.
- Information can be personalized based on the education level, choice of language, difficulty level, media of content and such other factors. This is thus like a 'customised service' provided in a 24×7 integrated environment where learners can find out the right resource with least effort and in minimum time.
- Repository hosts contents from multiple subject domains like Technology, Science, Humanities, Agriculture and others.
- More than 60 types of learning resources are available – books, articles, manuscripts, video lectures, thesis, etc.
- Items are available in more than 70 languages.
- Repository integrates contents from different Indian

Institutional Repositories.

Unorganised sector

National Policy on Domestic Workers:

The Ministry of Labour & Employment is considering to formulate a National Policy on Domestic Workers which is in the draft stage. The salient features of the proposed draft National Policy on Domestic Workers are as under:

1. Inclusion of Domestic Workers in the existing legislations
2. Domestic workers will have the right to register as unorganized workers. Such registration will facilitate their access to rights & benefits.
  - Right to form their own associations/unions
  - Right to minimum wages, access to social security
  - Right to enhance their skills
  - Protection of Domestic Workers from abuse and exploitation
3. Domestic Workers to have access to courts, tribunals for grievance redressal
4. Establishment of a mechanism for regulation of private placement agencies.
5. Establishment of a grievance redressal system for domestic workers.
