In News

Chief Justice of India has inaugurated the first-ever e-resource centre and virtual court for traffic and transport to enable speedy justice for litigants, called Nyay Kaushal

More Information

It is a first of its kind e-resource centre in India that will facilitate electronic filing of cases in the Supreme Court, High Courts and district courts across the country.

It is meant to be a step at mitigating various inequalities, being connected to the Supreme Court, the High Courts and the Taluka Courts.

It will provide the easiest way of filing court matters by utilising technology. It will provide benefits in saving time, avoidance of exertion, travelling long distances, and a saving in costs.

The virtual court will be working from Katol in Nagpur district.

The virtual court can deal with all traffic challan cases from every corner of Maharashtra online.

It will be possible for the litigants to pay the fine and get the traffic challan case disposed of with the click of a button on a smartphone or a computer.
