

- These 75 urban projects are innovative, multi-sectoral, and have been implemented across geographies.
- The program marks the 75th anniversary of India's independence.

National Institute of Urban Affairs-

- It is an institute for research, training and information dissemination in urban development and management in New Delhi, India.
- It was established in 1976 as an autonomous body under the Societies Registration Act.
- The Institute is supported by the Ministry of Urban Development, State Governments, urban and regional development authorities and other agencies concerned with urban issues.
- The Institute's policies and directions are determined by the Governing Council consisting of a President, who is appointed by the Government of India.

Further

reading:

<https://journalsofindia.com/smart-city-mission/>