1. World Anti Doping Agency (WADA)

In News- India has pledged a sum of USD 1 million to the World Anti-Doping Agency (WADA) towards the agency's scientific research budget.

About World Anti-Doping Agency-

- The First World Conference on Doping in Sport held, in Lausanne, Switzerland, in 1999, produced the Lausanne Declaration on Doping in Sport.
- Pursuant to the terms of the Declaration, the WADA was established on November 10, 1999, in Lausanne to promote and coordinate the fight against doping in sport internationally.
- The Agency consists of equal representatives from the Olympic Movement and public authorities.
- Its foundation was initiated by the International Olympics Committee (IOC) to promote, coordinate and monitor the fight against drugs in sports.
- It is headquartered in Montreal, Canada.
- Its key activities include scientific research, education, development of anti-doping capacities and monitoring of the World Anti-Doping Code (the document harmonizing anti-doping policies in all sports and all countries).

VALUES promoted-

- Integrity- We protect the rights of all athletes in relation to anti-doping, contributing to the integrity in sport.
- Openness- We collaborate with stakeholders and the industry to find common ways to fight doping. We listen to athletes' voices, as the stakeholders that are most impacted by anti-doping policies and activities.
- Excellence- We apply and share best practice standards to all our activities.

International Olympic Committee:

- It is a not-for-profit independent international organisation that is committed to building a better world through sport.
- It was created in 1894 and is the supreme authority of the Olympic Movement.
- It ensures the regular celebration of the Olympic Games, supports all affiliated member organisations and strongly encourages, by appropriate means, the promotion of the Olympic values.
